

Biodata: Kamran Janfeshan & Mohammad Mahdi Janfeshan

Kamran Janfeshan is a prominent figure in the field of TEFL in Iran, known for his significant contributions to establishing English Language courses at universities. He received his Ph.D. from Pune University, India and has since dedicated his career to teaching English. With over 26 years of experience, Dr. Janfeshan has published numerous articles in respected journals and has been a speaker at various national and international conferences. He currently holds a position at English Language Department, Kermanshah Branch. Furthermore, he supervises more than 100 MA theses and Ph.D. dissertations.

Mohammad Mahdi Janfeshan is an M.A. student in the field of TEFL in the Department of English, Science and Research Branch, Islamic Azad University, Tehran, Iran. With a keen interest in research and innovative teaching methodologies, he seeks to enhance the learning experience for his students. Moreover, he is particularly passionate about integrating various forms of educational technology into his classroom practices, believing that these tools can significantly enrich the language learning. Through his studies, he aims to explore effective strategies that can bridge traditional teaching methods with modern technological advancements, ultimately fostering a more engaging and productive learning environment.