

Bio-data: Nur Ilianis, M. Arif Rahman Hakim, Anisha Sasidharan, & Mohd Jafre Zainol Abidin

Nur Ilianis is a graduate from Universiti Sains Malaysia, Penang, Malaysia is currently a senior English lecturer in UiTM Penang Campus. She is a seasoned trainer and educator specializing in confidence in speaking, foreign language instruction, and intercultural communication. With extensive experience in developing and implementing training strategies, Nur Ilianis excels in building motivated teams and fostering progress among trainees. Her academic contributions include research on the blended learning teaching model, the use of TikTok in education, and drama activities in language teaching, she also focused on module development to enhance speaking confidence and communication skills across diverse student populations. Her work spans various journals and international conferences, reflecting a commitment to advancing educational practices and professional development.

M. Arif Rahman Hakim, is a senior lecturer at the English Language Education Department of Faculty of Tarbiyah and Tadris (Education and Training), Universitas Islam Negeri (UIN) Fatmawati Sukarno Bengkulu, Indonesia. His current academic position is Associate Professor. He is also a visiting scholar in Faculty of Education, Universitas Islam International Indonesia (UIII) Depok, Indonesia. His research interest cover EFL course design, language teaching strategies in EFL context and teaching materials development.

Anisha Sasidharan has a Master of Arts (Education) and is a graduate of Universiti Sains Malaysia. She is currently a full-time lecturer at Management Development Institute of Singapore (MDIS) the Malaysia campus located in Johor Bahru. She has been in the education field for over a decade with a zest for students' holistic development and is passionate about research in the field of English language, teaching methodology and education 4.0. Her areas of expertise include academic writing, IELTS coaching and lecturing in both English and General Studies courses. She strongly believes in empowering students to become independent learners who are critical thinkers and problem solvers.

Mohd Jafre Zainol Abidin is an associate professor at the School of Education, University Sains Malaysia, Penang-Malaysia. Currently, he is also appointed as a senior lecturer in Faculty of Education and Liberal Studies, City University, Malaysia. His expertises are in TESOL, language teaching, Applied Linguistics and English for specific purposes.