

Biodata: Andrea Nicole Cabanlit & Mee Jay A. Domingo

Andrea Nicole Cabanlit earned her BA in English degree at the Mariano Marcos State University. She leverages her expertise as a Project Manager to refine the dynamics of book publishing, especially for self-published and support for publishing houses. Her role involves streamlining operations and assisting authors to bring their visions to fruition. With a strong foundation in literary study and a keen insight into the publishing industry's evolving landscape, she plays a crucial part in transforming manuscripts into published works, underscoring her dedication to the art and science of literature.

Dr. Mee Jay A. Domingo is an Associate Professor V and Director of the Internationalization, Linkages, and Partnerships of the Mariano Marcos State University, Philippines. His research interests include computer-mediated communication, educational technology, and applied linguistics. He holds the following international certifications - Certificate of English Language Teaching for Adults (CELTA) and Teaching English for Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL). Currently, he is a member of the 2024 cohort of the U.S.-Philippines Partnership for Skills, Innovation, and Lifelong Learning (UPSKILL) Higher Education Innovation Leaders Fellowship Program sponsored by the US Agency for International Development (USAID).