

Biodata: Samrat Bisai, Smriti Singh

Samrat Bisai is working as an Assistant Professor at Ramakrishna Mission Brahmananda College of Education, Rahara, Kolkata. He earned his Ph.D. degree from Indian Institute of Technology, Patna. He has completed his M.A in English from Banaras Hindu University and M. Ed. with a First Class First degree from The English and Foreign Languages University, Hyderabad Campus. His research areas include Multilingualism, Second Language Acquisition and Translanguaging. He has published several articles in Scopus-Indexed journals. He is associated as an editor, co-editor and guest editor in several journals.

Smriti Singh is affiliated with the Department of Humanities and Social Sciences, IIT Patna since 2008. Before joining IIT Patna, she was working at Ranchi College. She is also the founding faculty of CNLU. Her areas of research and interest are ELT, Ecological Studies and Postcolonial studies. She has published 2 edited volumes and 1 self-authored book and numerous articles in Scopus and H5 indexed journals. She was also the Fulbright FLTA to the university of Texas at Austin for the year 2005-06. Currently, she is the Chair of Postcolonial Studies Association, a UK based association.