

Biodata: Wongpuchit Chulee, Ketwadee Khanom, Natrut Chesa, Mohammed Yassin Mohd Aba Sha'ar, Chamaiporn Buddharat

Wongpuchit Chulee received his bachelor's degree in business English (BBE) from Nakhon Si Thammarat Rajabhat University. Currently he is working as an English teacher at Pimmanee School, Thailand. His research interests include teaching English as a foreign language (TEFL), assessment and World Englishes.

Ketwadee Khanom received her bachelor's degree in Business English (BBE) from Nakhon Si Thammarat Rajabhat University. Currently she is working as an English teacher at Khangkhataweesin School, Thailand. Her research interests include language acquisition, and sociolinguistics.

Natrut Chesa received his bachelor's degree in Business English (BBE) from Nakhon Si Thammarat Rajabhat University. Currently he is working as a translator at Banyan Tree Bangkok Hotel, Thailand. His research interests include World Englishes, multilingualism.

Mohammed Yassin Mohd Aba Sha'ar received his Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) in English literature from Aligarh Muslim University, India. Currently, he is working as an English lecturer at Nakhon Si Thammarat Rajabhat University, Thailand. His research interests include Teaching English as a foreign language (EFL), translanguaging, English medium of instruction, Arab American literature, and educational technology.

Chamaiporn Buddharat received her Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) in Applied Linguistics from King Mongkut's University of Technology Thonburi, a Postgraduate Diploma (Post Grad. Dip.) in Educational Studies (TESL) at Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology (RMIT), Melbourne, Australia, her Master of Arts (MA) in English from Kasetsart University and her Bachelor of Education Program (B.Ed.) in English from Songkhla Srinakharinwirot University (Thaksin University). Her research interests English Language Teaching and World Englishes.