

Biodata: Konstantinos Pitychoutis

Konstantinos Pitychoutis FHEA FRSA MCIL is an assistant professor of English at the American University of the Middle East. Konstantinos was on the faculty of IST College/University of Hertfordshire, Al Yamamah University, and the University of Nizwa until moving to AUM in 2021. An active member of the TESOL community, he served as chair of TESOL Greece (2008-2010), he has chaired numerous international, bi-national, and national TESOL conferences, and he has been a member of TESOL International Association's Professional Development Committee (2014-2016). Konstantinos holds a doctorate in applied linguistics from Middlesex University London, and his research interests include second language acquisition, individual differences in second language learning, and intercultural communication.