

Biodata: Abdul Karim, Muhammad Kamarul Kabilan, Sayeedur Rahman, Faheem Hasan Shahed, Mohammad Mosiur Rahman

Abdul Karim is a Ph.D. Fellow at the School of Educational Studies, Universiti Sains Malaysia. He is also a Lecturer at Brac Institute of Languages, Brac University. His research interest concerns English Teacher Education, Teacher Beliefs and Practice, Medium of Instruction, English Medium Instruction, Teacher Identity, Reading and Writing, and E-learning. He has published widely in his area of research in reputable journals such as Reading & Writing Quarterly, Journal of Language Identity & Education, The Qualitative Report, Asian Englishes, Turkish Online Journal of Distance Education, and MEXTESOL Journal.

Professor Dr. Muhammad Kamarul Kabilan has been teaching at the School of Educational Studies, Universiti Sains Malaysia (USM) since 2004. His research interests include ICT and English Language Education and, professional development. He has published widely in his area of research in reputable journals such as TESOL Quarterly, British Journal of Educational Technology, Computer and Education, The Internet and Higher Education, Professional Development in Education and Teaching and Teacher Education. Currently, he is an Editorial board member for the British Journal of Educational Technology and recently appointed as the Editor in Chief for Asia Pacific Journal of Educators and Education.

Dr. Sayeedur Rahman is Professor at the Institute of Modern Languages (IML), University of Dhaka. He received his PhD in English Language Teaching from Jawaharlal Nehru University, India, as an ICCR Scholar. He has extensively worked as an ESL/EFL teacher and researcher for more than 20 years and has published widely in the areas of academic writing in ESOL context, EFL syllabus design and materials development, SLA and Sociolinguistics. He was the recipient of prestigious the Researcher Links fellowships from the British council, UK in 2014 and was offered the Visiting Fellow position with the Open University, UK.

Dr. Faheem Hasan Shahed is an Associate Professor and Head of TESOL Program at Brac Institute of Languages in Brac University, Bangladesh. After studying at the English Department in the University of Dhaka, he did his M.Phil. and Ph.D. in Applied Linguistics from Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU), New Delhi. His areas of interest include bilingualism, politics of language, gender, culture & ELT, and Business Communication. He has expertise in teaching English to a diverse range of professionals. Having published articles and book chapters nationally and internationally, he is also involved in creative writing, editing, translating and book reviewing.

Mohammad Mosiur Rahman is a lecturer at BRAC Institute of Languages (BIL), BRAC University in Bangladesh. He published interdisciplinary issues in language education and applied linguistics in prestigious journals like Journal of Bilingual Education and Bilingualism (Taylor & Francis), English Today (Cambridge University Press), Journal of Language, Identity & Education (Taylor & Francis), Asian Englishes (Taylor & Francis), English Teaching & Learning (Springer Nature), Journal of Asia TEFL (ASIA TEFL, South Korea), Issues in Educational Research (Western Australian Institute for Educational Research, Australia), Language Testing in Asia (Springer Nature), Open Linguistics (Walter DeGruyter), MEXTESOL Journal (MEXTESOL, Mexico) among others.