

Biodata: Dedi Irwan and Muhammad Iqbal Ripo Putra

Dedi Irwan is an assistant professor in educational research and evaluation at English Education Study Program of Language and Arts Education Faculty of IKIP PGRI Pontianak, Indonesia. He holds doctoral degree in Educational research and evaluation from University of Leicester, United Kingdom. He has been teaching a number of subjects related to Educational Research and Evaluation, including Educational Research Statistics, Approaches to Foreign Language Research, Data Collection and Analysis, and English Language Teaching Evaluation. His current educational research interests and projects are in Teaching and Learning Evaluation, Foreign Language Teaching, Language Assessments, Teachers' Professional Learning, Organisational Learning of School, and School Improvement.

Muhammad Iqbal Ripo Putra is currently working as a full-time university teacher at the Program of English Education, Faculty of Language and Arts Education of IKIP PGRI Pontianak, Indonesia. He is focusing on establishing teacher professional development, teachers', and learners' autonomy in rural areas. His work was supported by The Ministry of Education, Culture, Research and Technology of Indonesia, and he has published 20 papers in peer-reviewed journals. He demonstrated the ability to work independently with great creativity and enthusiasm. He put in many long hours. He worked as hard as he could in getting the deadline set. He also often volunteered to help other teacher who had problem in conducting research. It was because he really likes doing research.