

Biodata: Afif Ikhwanul Muslimin, Yazid Basthomi, & Abdul Syahid

Afif Ikhwanul Muslimin is a faculty member of the English Education Department of Universitas Islam Negeri Mataram, Indonesia. He obtained his doctoral degree in the English Language Education Program, at Universitas Negeri Malang, Indonesia. He is the general secretary of the ELITE Association (Association of English Educators in Indonesia) and the TEFLIN coordinator in West Nusa Tenggara Province, Indonesia. His research interests are in the areas of teacher professional development, English language teaching, technology-enhanced language teaching and learning, and linguistics.

Yazid Basthomi is a Professor of Applied Linguistics at the Department of English, Universitas Negeri Malang, Indonesia. He was once appointed Adjunct Lecturer at the University of New England. In 2019, he was a visiting professor at Linnaeus University, Sweden. Since recently, he has also been co-supervising two PhD students at Charles Darwin University. His research interests include genre analysis and interlanguage education. He has also been the Coordinator of the Publication Division of the Association for the Teaching of English as a Foreign Language in Indonesia (TEFLIN).

Abdul Syahid has been an EFL teacher since 1995. After teaching at some senior high schools in Sepang and Sampit, he joined Institut Agama Islam Negeri Palangka Raya, Indonesia in 2018 to pursue his teaching career. Besides e-learning and computer assisted language learning, his areas of interest include bibliometric studies.