

Biodata: Álvaro Ramírez Armenta

Álvaro Ramírez Armenta holds a master's degree in TEFL from The University of Veracruz. He received tenure at a public secondary school in Mexico, and he is currently teaching English at the English Department of Escuela Secundaria Técnica Agropecuaria 107. He has taught English for almost 5 years. His experience also includes teaching Spanish in China, a country in which he developed an interest in L2 acquisition and culture. Álvaro's research interests are on professional identity, applied linguistics, discourse analysis, and the emotional dimension of teaching. He has published articles on Chinese culture and U.S. immigration issues in local journals.