

Biodata: Peshawa Mohammed

Peshawa Mohammed holds a Master's degree in English Language Teaching from Near East University. He is currently pursuing a doctoral degree in Educational Research at University of Debrecen. He has been teaching EFL and cultural studies for almost 10 years in different institutes and universities. His research interests are refugee education, parental involvement and language teaching. He has published articles in journals and presented in different international conferences.