

Biodata: Elmira Hajmohammadi & Behnam Aghayani

Elmira Hajmohammadi finished her B.A. in the field of English Translation Studies in Islamic Azad University, Karaj Branch. She received her M.A. in the field of Translation Studies from Islamic Azad University, Central Tehran Branch. Her research interests include psycholinguistics, semiotics, political discourse analysis, and cognitive psychology. She had been an EFL teacher at both intermediate and advanced levels for 4 years. She is a simultaneous and consecutive interpreter. She is interested in the interdisciplinary approaches to the research field of TEFL.

Behnam Aghayani is an independent researcher in applied linguistics in Iran. He has published some research papers and books in international journals and publications. He has been editorial review board of numerous journals from 2016- to till now. He currently serves as an Associate Editor of the International Journal of Social Learning (IJSL). His primary research interests are psycholinguistics, semantics, morphology, semiotics, and translation studies.