

Biodata

M. Sidury Christiansen, Ph.D. is an Assistant Professor of TESOL/Applied Linguistics at UTSA. She specializes in the research and teaching of second language writing and digital literacies and sociolinguistics. Her research includes culture, sociolinguistics in education, language identity and ideology, and transnational digital literacies among bilinguals.

Daniela Silva is a Ph.D. student in the Culture, Literacy, and Language Program at the University of Texas in San Antonio. She received her M.A. degrees in Spanish and TESOL from the University of Mississippi. Her research interests are teacher education, multicultural education, second/foreign language teaching, and teaching of culture.