

Biodata: Elva Yohana & Mirjam Anugerahwati

Elva Yohana is a faculty member of the English Education Department of Universitas Islam Negeri Sayyid Ali Rahmatullah Tulungagung, East Java, Indonesia. She is currently doing her doctoral program in English Language Education in Universitas Negeri Malang, Indonesia. She obtained her Master in English education from the similar university. She has tried actively involved in a wide range of national teacher (researcher) professional development activities. Her areas of specialization include technology enhanced language skills teaching and learning, English for young learners, and teacher professional development.

Mirjam Anugerahwati is an Associate Professor at the Department of English, State University of Malang, where she has been teaching since 1990. She earned her Master's Degree from the University of Queensland, Australia, and her Doctoral Degree from Universitas Negeri Malang. Her main research interests are TEFL, Teacher Professional Development, CCU, and character building. She is actively involved in teacher training and workshops throughout Indonesia. She has written modules for the Open University, published research articles in scientific journals, and presented papers in National and International conferences. She is also an editor and reviewer for several accredited scientific journals. Currently, she is the head of the CAIE Centre in Universitas Negeri Malang.