

Biodata: Nguyen Thi Thuy Loan & Suriyawuth Suwannabubpha

NGUYEN Thi Thuy Loan is a trainer and assessor at VASS College of Vocational Education, Australia. She specializes in teacher education, reflective practice, written corrective feedback, genre analysis, English written discourse, second language writing instruction and research, citations and reporting verbs. Most of her publications on these topics can be found in Scopus and ISI-indexed journals.

Besides serving as a reviewer, an editor and editor-in Chief for Heliyon, Studies of Educational Evaluation, ESP Today Journal, and others, she has served as a chair and a committee member of thesis defenses in Thailand, a thesis examiner for PhD theses from Vietnamese and Australian universities, a supervisor for TESOL Master's students in Vietnam and a co-supervisor for an PhD candidate in Iran.

She has also been a keynote, plenary and concurrent speaker at many international conferences and a judge for the International English Speech Contest for Rajabhat and ASEAN Universities. She is sometimes invited to give special lectures and conduct workshops for postgraduate students and lecturers in Bangladesh, Indonesia, Nepal, Thailand and Vietnam.

Suriyawuth Suwannabubpha is a lecturer and an English-teacher trainer at Department of Humanities, Rajamangala University of Technology Isan, Nakhon Ratchasima, Thailand. He specializes in design and development of language learning applications for mobile devices. His research interests include technology-enhanced language learning (TELL), mobile-assisted language learning (MALL), and teaching and learning of English language skills in EFL contexts.