

Biodata: Tahsina Yasmin, Subrata Chandra Mozumder, & Nahida Akter Poly

Tahsina Yasmin has been teaching students at the tertiary level since 2002. She is working as the Associate Professor at the Department of English, DIU. She completed her BA (Hons) and MA in English from the National University, Bangladesh. She published many papers in national and international journals. She presented her papers at 21 conferences at home and abroad. Her research interest lies in critical thinking, gender studies, and pedagogy in language teaching.

Subrata Chandra Mozumder is an Assistant Professor in the Department of English at Daffodil International University, Dhaka, Bangladesh. He completed his BA (Hons) and MA in English from the University of Chittagong, Bangladesh. He was conferred the MPhil in English Degree for his research on "Gender Typing in Confessional Poetry: Judith Wright, Sylvia Plath, and Kamala Das" from the same university in 2015. His areas of interest include contemporary South Asian poetry, modern poetry, gender studies, cultural studies and postcolonial studies.

An academic researcher, Nahida Akter Poly completed her post-graduation in ELT from The English and Foreign Languages University (EFLU), Hyderabad, India and is currently working as a Senior Lecturer of English at her alma mater: Daffodil International University. She has done research on bilingualism in ESL classrooms, error analysis and computational linguistics. Her research interests include bilingual and multilingual education, sociolinguistics, classroom based assessment/alternative assessment, language learning strategies, computational linguistics and NLP.