

Biodata: Ahmad Goodarzi, Hiwa Weisi, and Nouroddin Yousofi

Ahmad Goodarzi is a Ph.D. holder in Applied Linguistics at Razi University, Kermanshah, Iran. His areas of interest include teaching English language skills, English course book evaluation, and critical discourse analysis. He is the author of some articles in his areas of interest and has presented papers in international conferences too. He is currently a visiting professor at Ayatollah Borujerdi University.

Hiwa Weisi is an Assistant Professor in Applied linguistics. His area of interest includes Discourse Analysis, Multilingualism and sociolinguistics. He has written one book in English titled Usage Notes, has translated four books into Persian (one was with the cooperation of Prof. Raizi from Macquarie University and one was published by Multilingual Matters and Dayton University). Hiwa Weisi has written many scholarly articles in the field which has been published in prestigious journals with JCR and Scopus indices. He has presented in many national and international conferences too. Besides, he has supervised many thesis and dissertation in Applied Linguistics field. He is currently teaching BA, MA and PhD courses at Razi University, Kermanshah.

Nouroddin Yousofi is an Assistant professor, Department of English Language and Literature, Razi University, Kermanshah, Iran, his research interest includes language studies and translation. He has published more than 40 articles in national and international journals along with a similar number of presentations in conferences. He has published 10 books either as author or translator. He has been teaching EFL in different levels about 25 years. He has supervised about 30 PhD dissertations and MA theses in Applied Linguistics.