Bio-data: M. Sidury Christiansen, Shikun Li, Melissa Bailey

M. Sidury Christiansen

M. Sidury Christiansen is an Assistant Professor of TESOL/Applied Linguistics at the University of Texas at San Antonio. She specializes in the research and teaching of sociolinguistics and digital literacies among bilinguals and English language learners. Her research explores the intersection between digital literacy and language ideologies, identities, and culture.

Shikun Li

Shikun Li is a doctoral candidate in the Department of Bicultural- Bilingual Studies in the College of Education and Human Development at the University of Texas at San Antonio. Her research interest includes teacher candidates' beliefs, SLA specific knowledge, and the integration of mobile devices in teacher education programs.

Melissa Bailey

Melissa R. Bailey is a graduate of UTSA with a Master's in TESL. She is currently working at Jilin University - Lambton College in China where she teaches academic English and research methodologies. She is currently researching written feedback methods and their impact on ELL development.