

Biodata: David A. Housel

David A. Housel is the Associate Director of the City University of New York (CUNY) Language Immersion Program at LaGuardia Community College. He has worked in the field of adult literacy, primarily with adult, immigrant emergent bi/multilingual learners (EBLs), for 21 years and has been a licensed social worker in the State of New York for 33 years. He is currently a doctoral candidate in Instructional Leadership at Hunter College (CUNY). His research interests include preservice preparation and ongoing professional development for instructors of adult EBLs; the co-occurring factors that impact adult learning; and enhancing pedagogy in postsecondary settings.